If you have trouble signing in, please contact wendi.latko@gmail.com.

DISRUPTED: On Sunday February 22, the Rebel Beat youth & kids begin DISRUPTED...How Jesus Changed Everything. During their Lenten journey the youth & kids will use interactive dramas, deep discussions and outreach projects to explore the radical love of Jesus and the ripple effect it still has today.

CHILI COOK-OFF: Save the date! On March 15th the Rebel Beat Youth & Kids will host a chili cook-off. Do you have a fabulous chili recipe? Do you enjoy eating chili? Do you aspire to be on a celebrity judging panel? If you said yes to any of these questions, then do we have a community building event for you. More info soon.

IN THE COMMUNITY

PURSE FILLNG: Save your purses and purse fillers! Collection basket in the narthex. Purse filling party March 7th at 10:00

RICHARD KENDRICK will be performing in the play, "There's a Man Going 'Round Taking Names: A Protest with Song," on Friday, February 20, at 7:30 p.m. at the Multi Use Community Cultural Center (MUCCC) on 142 Atlantic Avenue, Rochester. The play is written by local author, Karen Culley, and directed by Reuben J. Tapp. It will be presented as part of the annual Bronze Collective festival of African American performing arts, which runs February 15-22. The play is a powerful and moving collection of stories and music from the centuries-long struggle for racial justice. The parallels to current events are profound.
